2012 FALL SEMESTER WRAP UP
It’s Final Exam Week followed by Winter Break. It seems like only yesterday that the term began with the threat of a storm named Isaac! Before classes resume on the 7th of January, we want to wish all of our readers a wonderful holiday season and best wishes for 2013. Eleven of our students have signed up for internships and practicums during the upcoming winter term. In addition, there will be many opportunities to volunteer for non-profits and sports organizations. If you would like to help the Broward Sheriff’s Office distribute toys for the Annual Toys for Tots and Teens event on December 22nd, please contact Professor Olson. Make sure you mark your calendar for SPT Night. It’s February 6, 2013 when the Sharks take on Eckerd for a double header basketball game. The women play at 5:30 and the men tip off at 7:30.

MBA IN SPORT REVENUE GENERATION
This is a reminder that the H. Wayne Huizenga School of Business and Entrepreneurship now offers a MBA in Sport Revenue Generation. The first concentration class will be offered in the Spring of 2013. If you are planning on attending graduate school, consider our new MBA. Sport organizations are constantly looking for people with these skills.

We have invited the Advisory Board. So here’s a chance to network with leaders in South Florida and cheer on the Sharks!
