

Meal Reimbursements

Meals are reimbursable when you are teaching more than 50 miles from your residence. (For full-time employees, it is 50 miles from your primary University work location; not your home.)

You will be reimbursed for your meals up to a limit of $50 per day for U.S. trips and $100 per day for trips outside the country. How much you are reimbursed depends upon the departure/arrival times of your trip. NSU frequently revises its travel reimbursement guidelines, so please refer to the NSU Travel Policy for more specifics.

University policy dictates that we do not reimburse for alcoholic beverages.
