

Mileage Reimbursements

Mileage reimbursement is provided if the teaching site is located 50 miles or more one-way from your residence. (For full-time employees, mileage is provided when travelling from your primary University work location, and not your home.) Mileage reimbursement is currently calculated at the Federal Government rate of 55.5 cents per mile. As the government rate changes, our online reimbursement forms are revised to incorporate the new rate in the automated calculations.