M.B.A. with a major in International Business

You're ready to become a business leader in a global market. To do this, you have to know how to navigate the challenges and opportunities of a constantly changing global economy. We can provide that competitive advantage.

The M.B.A. with a major in International Business prepares you to meet the needs of any startup, nonprofit, or multinational corporation operating around the world. You'll learn from Fortune 500 business executives and other industry leaders on how to successfully manage across borders and in different cultural and institutional environments—gaining a thorough understanding of individual government policies and varying economic, political, social, and cultural conditions.

In addition, you'll have a number of opportunities to gain real-world experience by studying emerging markets in the classroom, completing an internship, or traveling and studying abroad with the International Field Seminar. By the time you complete the program, you'll be prepared to dominate on a more global level.
