

MPA PROGRAM LOGIC MODEL

The mission of the NSU Master of Public Administration program is to enhance local governance through teaching, research, and active public service. Our on-ground and online cohort programs prepare our diverse student population to serve the local community with integrity, objectivity, and creativity. The program fosters critical thinking, analytical decision-making, and ethical leadership skills necessary to effectively address public sector challenges and opportunities.

