WELCOME GEORGE STIEREN
SPT ADJUNCT FACULTY

Fort Lauderdale Strikers VP for Communications, George Stieren, joins the Sport and Recreation Management Department as an adjunct faculty member this fall. He will be teaching SPT 5920 (formerly 5200) - Sport Ticketing, Concessions and Merchandise Management which is one of the MBA courses in the Sport Revenue Generation concentration. Professor Stieren has over 15 years of experience with high profile organizations including 4 years as Media Relations Director at Homestand-Miami Speedway and 14 years with the San Diego Padres where he was Director of Business Public Relations. Other positions held at the Padres included Director of Promotions and Special Events and Manager of Ticket Operations.

While in California, he served as an Adjunct Professor at the University of San Francisco (Orange, CA) where he taught External Communication in Sport. Professor Stieren has a Bachelor of Arts and Sciences in Communications from Eastern Illinois University and a Masters of Sport Science, Management from the United States Sports Academy where he graduated with honors.

Professor Stieren is very excited to be part of the NSU program. His full time job at the Strikers keeps him very busy. However, he enjoys teaching and looks forward to sharing his wealth of knowledge and experience with our MBA students.
