The 52nd Annual Fort Lauderdale Boat Show splashed off with the Guy Harvey Ocean Foundation Fundraising Banquet at NSU on October 26th. Check out intern Kristi Schnepp along with her supervisor, Tony Segretto, in this week’s featured picture. Kristi assisted with check-in and the silent auction at the event. Tony, who is a member of the NSU Board of Trustees, also serves as the Chair for the Athletics Advisory Council. Guy Harvey has a close working relationship with the University including the creation of the mural in the University Center. Kristi has been able to expand her networking and experiences by working with Tony and the Guy Harvey Foundation. This is her second internship—her first being with the Miami Dolphins.

Reminder to all students doing a practicum or internship—SEND YOUR LOG TO PROFESSOR OLSON EACH MONDAY!
1. MIASF Intern Tom Kinzer opens “Making Waves,” an official publication of the Marine Industries of South Florida and the full page story about his internship. The article is called “Time-Out with Tom, The Lavish Life of a MIASF Intern (In His Own Words).” Photo taken at the Convention Center, one of the Boat Show venues.

2. Diana Castejon-Morales is ready to greet Boat Show passengers. Diana graduated in May 2011 and recently started working for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society.

3. Diana Castejon-Morales and Professor Olson started out as part of the Boat Crew and then were transferred to the Information Centers. Ask them anything about the Boat Show! They will probably be able to tell you.

4. Professor Olson enjoys a sunny ride on a river boat during day 1 of the Boat Show.
