SPT 5200 STUDENTS ATTEND NSU ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME INDUCTION BANQUET

Many graduate students attend classes online and never get a chance to see all the great things going on on the NSU campus. Students in the MBA Sport Revenue Generation Program take all their core courses in the classroom. However, the students often meet in locations in addition to the Carl DeSantis Building. This semester’s SPT students have met at the Broward County Convention Center and the Don Taft University Center. Before the end of the term, they will meet at the BB&T Center. On November 12, 2013 the graduate students pictured above posed in front of the Hall of Fame located on the first floor of the University Center. For some it was the first time attending an event at the Arena! They were impressed and enjoyed learning more about the Sharks Athletic Program. The Hall of Fame Class of 2013 includes Nicole Felluca (Rowing), Bryan Cook (Baseball), Katie Velti (Softball) and Juam Ramos (Soccer). Congratulations to Kim Carbo and Jennifer Bucknell who organized the event. It was a great evening. Go Sharks!

SENIOR SEMINAR STUDENTS MAKE PRESENTATIONS

Students enrolled in Senior Seminar recently did informational interviews with professionals working in areas which interest them. There was plenty of variety. Here’s Louie Munley with Bruce H. Freedman, P.A. Louie aspires to be an attorney just like his grandfather and father. Despite growing up with a family practicing law, Louie found it very helpful to speak to Bruce who practices personal injury law and is involved in supporting local sport charities!
NSU Sport and Recreation Management had a strong presence at the 2013 NSU Baseball Golf Classic. Starting with the upper left picture and moving clockwise are Blake Boyd, Brett Clements and Andrew Packard. NSU graduate and now Athletics Graduate Assistant and MBA student Francisco Amado is ready for golf and some Chick-fil-A. It was great to see NSU graduate and now Jacaranda Country Club employee Teddy Tassy who posed with Professor Olson. Teddy has moved from the basketball court to the golf course! Finally we must thank NSU Marketing Grad and now Chick-fil-A Marketing Director, Sayuri Sosa, for organizing lunch on behalf of her Manager, Felix Hodges (not pictured). With Sayuri is former NSU baseball player Dan Petitbon who recently finished an internship with the National League Champions St. Louis Cardinals.
